Dear Praying Friends,

The beginning of this month the catholics have what's called the day of the dead. Many go to the cemetery to visit their dead relatives. They bring them food and leave it there for those family members that have died. The traffic to go and come back is always terrible as there are so many people going to the cemetery. On that day Lidia went there with a bunch of Gospel tracts and they were all given out so quickly! There are many people that need to be saved and how can they be saved without the truth from the Bible?

Samantha, a little girl that has been coming to church every week, invited her parents to come to church. She started to come during our last conference. Her parents have come a few times. They even brought their granddaughter with them! The dad said that his daughter Samantha looks like and behaves like his mother who used to go to a Christian church before she passed away. Samantha was invited to church by Santiago, another small boy who comes to church with us. America came back from Guadalajara and she came to church bringing her cousin Jade. She heard the Gospel and got saved! What a blessing to have our people bringing others to church!

Alondra, who is ten years old, sometimes comes to church with us. Not too long ago she brought her mom and dad to church. He has never come to the services before. He came in a wheel chair because they had amputated one of his legs from diabetic complications. He heard the Gospel that day and trusted Christ to save him! God even uses bad things for His honor and glory!

Recently we have been receiving help in the nursery from a new church lady. It seems that many times it is as difficult as pulling out teeth to get people involved in helping. So this is a blessing to have someone else added to the list of nursery and children's class workers. And speaking of others getting involved; Moses and Alex each came out soul winning with us for the first time! Our church people saw 41 trust Christ for salvation and Lidia and I saw another 22 people come to the Saviour! There were also four first time visitors that came to church!

Yours for souls,
Mike and Lidia Lemma
