We want to extend a warm invitation to anyone passionate about the ministry of restoration—whether in your own life or the lives of others. Join us on April 3rd and 4th, 2025, for our first Restoration Workshop of the year. It promises to be an enriching and uplifting experience as we gather to share, learn, and encourage one another in restoring fallen Christians.

What to Expect:

We'll kick things off on Thursday evening, starting at 6:00 PM with a delicious dinner. Over our meal, we'll come together informally around the table to discuss restoration. This will be a time to hear inspiring testimonies, share your own experiences, and engage in open dialogue about what it looks like to restore others. It's not about seeking personal restoration; instead, it's a time to talk about how we can help others through their restoration journey. Whether you've personally experienced restoration or have been involved in helping others, your ideas and experiences will be valuable.

We'll begin the day on Friday morning with a hearty breakfast at 8:00 AM and dive into more in-depth discussions. We'll explore various topics related to the restoration process, sharing practical insights and strategies that God has blessed us with to help others. We'll conclude by 4:00 PM, allowing time for you to get back home.

Details You Need to Know:

- Dates: Thursday, April 3rd, starting at 6:00 PM, and Friday, April 4th, ending at 4:00 PM.
- Meals: We'll provide all meals during the event, including dinner on Thursday and breakfast and snacks on Friday.
- Cost: The event is offered on a free-will donation basis—give what you can, but please don't let finances keep you from attending.
- Accommodations: We have limited space available for overnight guests. If you plan to attend and need a place to stay, please let me know soon to reserve your spot. We have a tiny house and several suites available in the barn. You're welcome to share a room if you're traveling with a friend or a fellow pastor.
- Local Participants: If you're close enough to drive in, we'd love to have you join us, even if you can only make it for Friday. We'll keep things informal and relaxed on Thursday evening, and Friday will be a day to dig in and make the most of our time together.

Why You Should Attend:

This workshop is a fantastic opportunity to network with others involved in restoration, to hear from those who have walked through the process, and to gain new tools and insights to serve better those who are hurting. We'll be diving into real-life stories and actionable steps that can make a difference in the lives of those around us. Whether you're a pastor, lay leader, counselor, or anyone who has a heart for restoration, this is an event you won't want to miss.

We're also blessed to have Immanuel Baptist Church in Jacksonville fully supporting this event, which will only enhance the experience and provide an excellent foundation for what's to come.

Additional Information:

- If you're traveling from out of state, we can connect you with a shuttle service to and from the Atlanta airport, making travel convenient.
- We're excited to announce that Pastor Greg Neal and his team will join us for this event, adding more value to our time together.

So, if you're interested in being part of this unique gathering, please don't wait—reach out to me soon! We're already filling up the spaces and want to ensure we have room for you. If you feel called to help in the restoration process, join us for this first workshop of 2025. We believe it will be a blessing to you and to everyone who attends.

Let's begin the year by building a strong network of restoration-focused leaders ready to make a difference in the lives of those who need it most.

I hope to see you there!

God bless you,

David and Brenda Hyles
