Dear Galatians 6:1 Ministries Family and Friends,

As we enter into the month of May, our hearts are full of gratitude—for what God is doing, and for you. We are deeply thankful for every friend, supporter, and prayer warrior who stands with us in this calling. You are part of this ministry, and we thank God for you.

There are so many exciting things on the horizon. We are watching the Lord expand our outreach in ways that only He could make possible. In the fall, we will be conducting two restoration workshops—one here at the Red Barn in South Georgia, and one in North Florida. We'll share more details as those plans come together, but we are so grateful for these opportunities to help others experience real, biblical restoration.

Perhaps the most exciting development right now is the release of our new book: Mercy for Me: A Journey Through David's Prayer of Restoration in Psalm 51. This book is now available on our website, and we would love for you to get a copy for yourself or someone you care about.

This book is deeply personal. It began not as a project for others, but as a study for David's own heart. Years ago, he walked through the brokenness of Psalm 51 and wrote down what God was teaching him—line by line, truth by truth. For a long time, those thoughts stayed private. But over time, as God opened doors to help others who had fallen, these same truths were shared, and then passed on again and again.

Now, it's available for anyone who truly desires to be restored, strengthened, and drawn back into deep fellowship with the Lord. It's a 36-day devotional, walking through David's prayer Monday through Saturday for six weeks. If you've ever asked, "How could David be restored after such failure?"—this book shows you how. It's not a secret. David truly repented—and the steps he took are laid out in Psalm 51.

This is a book about restoration. But more than that—it's about getting truly right with God.

We hope you'll order a copy, take notes, do a personal inventory, and let the Word do its work in your life. Restoration doesn't happen casually—it requires reflection, honesty, and humility before God. This book will help guide you through that process.

Now, may we be transparent for a moment?

We need your help.

This past year brought some challenges. We lost support from a few churches due to pastoral transitions and unforeseen circumstances. Added to that were some significant financial gaps tied to the heartbreaking events at our home church last year.

We are so grateful to Pastor Greg Neal and the Immanuel Baptist Church, our pastor and home church, for their incredible support during this time. They have gone above and beyond to help us bridge the gap—and we cannot thank them enough.

But the need is still great.

Most of our monthly support comes not from churches, but from individuals—people like you who believe in what God is doing through Galatians 6:1 Ministries. We are asking—genuinely and humbly—would you consider becoming a monthly supporter?

We know many love what this ministry represents. We often hear, “We believe in what you’re doing.” And we are so thankful. But in addition to prayer (which we always need!), we also need financial help to continue doing what God has called us to do.

Very few days go by without someone here at the Red Barn seeking help, counsel, or restoration. The needs are constant. But so is the grace of God—and we want to be faithful to extend that grace to others.

We believe with all our hearts that this ministry is needed—and if it’s needed, it’s worth supporting.

Forgive us if we sound a little bold, but time is short and souls are hurting. We are excited for the days ahead, and we invite you to be a part of it—not just in prayer, but in partnership.

Thank you again, from the bottom of our hearts. We love each of you and are honored to serve the Lord alongside such faithful friends.

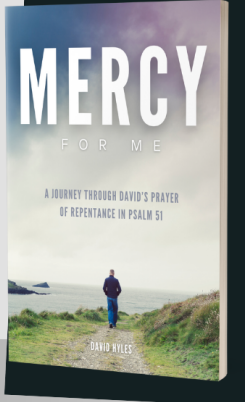

In Christ,

David & Brenda Hyles
