MISSIONARIES to MEXICO

July 2025

Dear Friends,

Aminadab is a young man who worked for the Venezuelan cartel as a "sicario" or a professional assassin. He killed 28 men before coming to Mexico. One week, he prayed and asked that if there was a God, He would show Himself to him. One of our people invited him to church. He had seen our services on the internet and decided to come.

During the service Sunday morning, he thought he heard voices telling him to kill me. I also had preached something that had made him furious. (First time that has happened. I am known for my loving, kind preaching.) During the invitation, he walked forward to shoot me. He waited for me to bow my head and lead in prayer.

As he reached for his pistol, he felt hands holding it down in its holster. He thought a security guard had grabbed him and tried to step forward, but he felt strong arms wrap around him and pull him back. You can even see on the church camera as he was pulled back. He looked around and no one was there, but he said he could not move. While I lead in a salvation prayer for those watching online or people in the auditorium who did not have a soul-winner talking to them, Aminadab decided to pray to trust Christ.

Later, one of my assistant pastors named David asked him if he wanted to be saved. He said, "I just was!" He showed him the pistol and told him the story. Later during follow up, he said, "If I had killed that man, I would have gone to jail and then to hell. Now I am going to heaven and know God is real." He gave my assistant his gun and said, "I don't need this now."

Thank you for your prayers and support for my family and myself. We literally would not be here if not for you and our gracious God!

In July we had a great youth conference with many thousands attending and hundreds giving their lives to serve God. My son-in-law and sons are doing a great job! 76,445 were saved in July during services and 1,277 baptized! Thank you for being faithful to help us. This is your work!

In Christ,

Kevin Wynne
