Dear Praying Friends,

We had asked you to pray for our first Sunday using our new baptistry. On that day we had three believers follow the Lord in baptism! The following Sunday, a young lady named Abi, who got saved a few weeks ago, also got baptized! We had four of our people obey God in this very important step. There are also many others that need to do the same. Please pray for them to obey God in this Biblical command.

A few weeks ago we went out soul winning in the section of town where we live. We had a good group of soul winners that day. We also were giving away full Bibles and New Testaments. The majority of the people were very happy to get a brand new Bible. They were very surprised that we were giving them away. We also had people trust Christ for eternal salvation! The next week we had about 50 New Testaments and 35 new Bibles to give away. We went to the hospital and within five minutes they were all given away and we could have used another 30 or 40 more Bibles.

Edith, a lady that has been coming for a few years, came one Saturday to go out soul winning with us. She has been out almost every week to learn how to witness. This is an encouragement to see that there are still people that want to be used of God. She went out today helping Bertha to get around due to the fact that Bertha is almost completely blind. She was impressed with Bertha and that she has not quit on God due to her blindness. Since our last letter Lidia and I led 33 souls to Christ and our church people led another 34 to the Saviour!

Before Resurrection Sunday we had our service in Pozo. We had a good group with first time visitors. Lidia led a teenage girl to the Lord and I led a couple to the Lord after the service. We had a pastor that came from the USA to visit us for a few days. I translated the sermon and the people were moved by the God's message. This would be the 8th pastor that has come to visit us since 1998.

The building that we rent in the ranch of Pozo has been sold by the owners. This could be a problem as they may not want to continue renting to us. Most people do not like us because we are not catholic. There are some problems with the paperwork and this gives us, maybe, more time to find another place to rent. Please pray for us concerning this situation. We need God's will in this area as far as where we should rent. Yuri goes to church with us in Pozo and her brother Jose Carlos, was kidnapped by the bad people and his family does not know where he is at or if he is still alive. Please pray for this family.

Yours for souls,
Mike and Lidia Lemma
